The Daffodis

I wondered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high O'er vales and hills
When all at once I saw a crowd
A host of golden daffodis
Beside the lake, beneath the trees fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way
They stretched in nevre ending line
Along the margin of bay
Ten thousand saw I at a galance
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.
