A young child sent a letter to the post office, addressed to God. A postal employee not knowing exactly what to do with it, gave it to the local Rotary club. It read, "Dear God, My name is Ramesh. I am six years old. My father is dead and my mother is having a hard time raising me and my sister. Would you please send Rs.5000?"
The Rotarians were touched and decided to pitch in a few rupees each send whatever they collected for the family. They were able to collect Rs.3000. A couple of weeks later, the second letter from Ramesh was turned over to them. The boy thanked God but ended the letter with this request, "Next time, would you please deliver the money directly to our home? If you send it to the Rotary club, they deduct Rs. 2000".
