Test - 12

Read the following text and answer the questions.

About one hundred years ago many educated people learned and spoke French when they met people from other countries. Today most people speak English when they meet foreigners. It has become the new international language. There are many reasons why English has become so popular. But business and the English culture (like movies, music, and McDonald's) which has quickly spread throughout the world are considered as the main reasons.

It's important to have a language that the people of the earth have in common. Our world has become very global and we need to communicate with one another. On the other hand, English is a fairly complicated language to learn and it brings its culture with it. Do we really need that? May be the popularity of English won't last that long either. Who knows? There are more people in the world who speak Chinese than any other language. May be some day Chinese will be the new international language.

- 1 What was the world language 100 years ago?
- 2 What are two reasons English has become an international language today?

3. Complete the sentence.

Our world has become . . .

4. Write the sentence which says that Chinese might be the future international language be?
