Test 07

Read the following text and answer the questions.

(5 marks)

We watched Arugambay around nine in the morning on the second of August. We didn't have to run about looking for accommodation as our father had booked two rooms in a guest house. The rooms were large with all facilities and we were quite comfortable. We enjoyed the meals with many varieties of sea food.

Arugambay lies about four kilo metres from Pothuvil between the Lahugala National park, and the Kumana bird sanctuary. On our way to Pothuvil, we drove through the Lahugala National park. There, in the tank, we saw a herd of wild elephants playfully splashing water, gripping their trunks and nuzzling each other. The bigger ones were standing on the bank as guards. We saw a flock of peacocks dancing rhythmically moving round and fluttering their bright feathers. It was spectacular indeed.

- (1) When did they reach Arugambay?
- (2) Where did they stay?
- (3) Write the sentence which describes the location of Arugambay.....
