Read the following text and answer the questions.

Nayana's uncle who lives next door has a lovely garden. He just sold his land to a merchant. Now the merchant has decided to build a factory in this place. "What will happen to the lovely garden then?" Nayana asked excitedly, yet also with a worried tone of voice. "Will they cut down all the trees in the garden? Will all the trees soon be gone?" Nayana asked in surprise. "Yes my dear all the trees will soon be cut down" responded her mother. Nayana was not happy. She went in to her room and looked out through the window at the nearby scene.

There was so much noise and commotion going on she couldn't believe it. The unpleasant noise of wood being cut and workers shouting at one another made her very unhappy. She watched the birds flying here and there. Then suddenly a huge tree was cut down and it came crashing hard to the ground, causing the area around her to shake.

Soon after all the work had been done, she noticed that many of the flowers had disappeared. She was very angry and also sad with the man who was holding the axe. Tears began to run down her pretty cheeks.

The following chart shows the preference of leisure time activities of the students in a class. Study the chart and write a passage describing the chart

By early afternoon, two hours after Mrs. Malathy has discovered her daughter missing, everyone had given up the hope. There was no way she could still be alive on such a stormy day.

Mrs. Malathy and rest of the town people could only wish for a miracle. What they got was a miracle dog named Hunter.

It seems Hunter, a large white husky who lives next door to the Malathy's family, was snoozing in front of his house. He saw little Mayuri coming. Walking down the street he grabbed and led her to his front door. The door must not have been shut tightly, because a half an hour later Mrs. Malathy discovered her dog playing with Mayuri. Of course, she knew who the child was and phoned Mrs. Malathy immediately. She tried phoning the police too. No one was at Mrs. Malathy's home to respond and the police line too was always busy.

But she kept trying. Finally when all the searches had given up, she got through to Mrs. Malathy and Mayuri was quickly reunited with her mother.

It seems that somehow the little girl had managed to unbolt the front door and was going outside to find her father who she thought had gone to work. And Hunter- well no one knows what he was thinking.
