Read the following poem and answer the questions below.

My tree

O Tree, so big and stout and strong,
You're lived so very, very long;
A hundred years or more, I'm told
And yet you're not so very old.

A hundred secrets you could tell
Of children whom you love so well,
Who came and sat beneath your shade
Or underneath your branches played

A hundred birds have built their nests;
Your leaves have softy kisses their breasts;
Your branches seem to touch the sky,
Yet you were once as small as I.

Some day when I have grown up, too,
I'm coming back to visit you;
And changed though other things will be,
I'll find the same dear friendly tree.
